

VASSILIS PSOMAS/ANA

A pedal-powered boat taking three men from Piraeus to Amsterdam is seen yesterday in the Corinth Canal. Dutchmen Alex Mutsaars and Mark de Vries and Belgian Matthijs Houben set off from Piraeus on Sunday on a 4,500-kilometer journey for a Dutch children's charity. The money they raise will go to Villa Pardoes, a hostel for children with serious illnesses.